Universidade Católica Portuguesa (UCP), founded in 1967, is a leading research university in Portugal with 20.000 students and 1125 faculty members.

With four campuses spread across the country (Lisbon, Oporto, Braga and Viseu), 19 Schools and 13 Research Centres, UCP provides a wide range of studying possibilities, offering a complete university experience that combines tradition, modernity, proximity and an international driven education.

UCP offers high-quality programs in Humanities, Arts, Technologies, Social Sciences and Health Sciences. We are a global university with students originating from 121 different countries. Several of our Masters' Programs are ranked among the best in the world according to different ranking agencies and both our business schools – Católica Lisbon School of Business & Economics and Católica Porto Business School - are Triple Crown accredited.

Our mission is to be a university that leads in the global creation of science for the common good, and in educating today's students for tomorrow's challenges. Our commitment to excellence in teaching and research has granted us top positions in many fields of study and has also led UCP to be recognized as the most entrepreneurial university in Portugal with high impact in the economy and its students' careers.
