Live. Learn. Connect. In Vietnam

View the world through a new lens with RMIT's Culture and Context in Vietnam course. Open to undergraduate students from any discipline, this 12 credit point (7.5 ECTS) course will help you navigate cultural differences and prepare you for life and work in a globalised world.

You'll learn the theory behind intercultural competence before exploring Vietnamese culture and society through firsthand experience. Throughout the course, you'll reflect critically on your own culture, values and perceptions of the world, and learn how to adapt in different situations. Armed with insight, experience and skill, you'll be ready to jump into a study program or internship in Vietnam with confidence.

CULTURE AND CONTEXT IN VIETNAM COURSE STRUCTURE

Across five modules, Culture and Context in Vietnam is delivered online and on campus over two-three weeks. You'll complete the first module before you get to Vietnam, then undertake the following modules when you arrive. You will study in a media rich online learning environment and engage in experiential activities to bring your theoretical knowledge to life.

Module 1 Representations of Vietnam

How has your view of the world been shaped? Explore how Vietnam has been represented across the globe via images, music, popular culture and the media. You'll look closely at how history has contributed to the complexity of contemporary Vietnam, and reflect on your own understanding of the country.

Pre-departure

Module 2 Family and Work Life Vietnam

Family plays a huge role in Vietnamese society, but traditions and values are rapidly evolving as the country undergoes tremendous growth and change. Examine the way that power and gender roles affect relationships at home and at work while considering your own understanding of these concepts.

Module 3 Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurial spirit is ingrained in Vietnamese culture. From small family-run businesses through to cutting edge start-ups, determination and a can-do attitude form the backbone of many successful companies. Reflect on what it means to be innovative by interacting with a variety of Vietnam's entrepreneurial business owners.

Module 4 Popular Culture

What's life like for young people in Vietnam? Explore local artists, commentators, fashion and media as you study the intersection of traditional and popular culture in Vietnam. Look at the rise of social media, and its impact on youth culture.

Module 5 Creative Practice

Study a significant collection of Vietnamese contemporary art to gain insight into the country's creative practice and output. Build on your knowledge with site visits to galleries and art spaces, and explore Vietnam's developing art scene.

ASSESSMENTS

You will be assessed on your ability to apply critical reflection and analysis to your experience through written papers, a group project and multimedia assignment. These assessments will be completed throughout the course.

OUTCOMES

Upon completing Culture and Context in Vietnam, you will be ready to face the challenges and embrace the opportunities that arise when you're exposed to different cultural environments. You will be able to:

Identify and discuss significant features of Vietnamese culture and society

Interact appropriately in intercultural situations

Reflect critically on your own and other cultures

Adapt to different cultural settings

You will earn 12 credit points (7.5ECTs) towards your undergraduate degree and qualify for entry into RMIT Vietnam's International Internship Program.
