

Get ahead in the world of business

The MBA program at SNHU provides the flexibility to customize your program with courses that focus on specific subjects of interest. You can complete your graduate degree on campus in 12–18 months, with 3–5 courses per 16–week term.

You can choose to take either elective courses or a concentration to complete your 12–course program. Those with non–business academic backgrounds may be required to take foundation courses.

Degree Courses:

MBA Core 1:

- Business Environment, Innovations, and Entrepreneurship
- Accounting and Financial Analysis
- Leading in an Organization
- Marketing and Strategy

MBA Core 2:

- Ethics, Corporate Culture and Social Responsibility
- Finance, Economics, and Decision Making
- Government Impact on Business
- Operations Management and Technology
- MBA Capstone

Students may also choose three electives from multiple areas of business, or choose to do a concentration in Finance, Operations and Supply Chain Management, or Project Management. One elective may be replaced by an internship.

For those who do not meet the minimum requirements, the following foundation courses may be required:

- Mathematics and Statistics for Business*
- Economics for Business*
- Financial Reporting and Analysis*
- Business Law*
- Human Behavior in Organizations*

This coursework may be exempt based on undergraduate coursework.*

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Earning an MBA is an important step toward getting ahead in the business world. SNHU can help channel your passion for business into a fulfilling career, and the MBA program will help put you on the path to success.

Today's business environment requires professionals to adapt to change on the fly, assess resource constraints strategically, and provide solutions to complex problems. Southern New Hampshire University's Master of Business Administration (MBA) program furnishes you with the specific knowledge and skills you'll need to succeed in a modern business career. You'll learn from experienced faculty and interact with a diverse student body, sharpening your ability to connect with people. You'll also consider an increasingly global business environment while working to formulate your own business plan, better equipping you to compete and excel.

The MBA degree from SNHU enables you to help reshape corporations, create sustainability in small businesses, and take your rightful place in today's market as an up-and-coming entrepreneur or business leader. Furthermore, our MBA offers you the flexibility to tailor your program around your interests by choosing a concentration.

The MBA program is taught during the day on our campus in Manchester, N.H. The program has three terms per year—September, January, and May—which allows you to complete the program in 12–18 months. You can start your program during any one of the three terms.
